How to reach Bari:

Bari's international airport K.Wojtyła, (www.aeroportidipuglia.it) is at around 8 km from the city centre where the university is situated. Many European and Italian low cost airlines serve the region. Alitalia reaches Bari departing from Milano (Malpensa & Linate) as well as from Roma. Low cost companies like Ryanair fly to Bari from Milano-Orio al Serio and Pisa as well as Myair from Genova and Milano Orio Al Serio. From Milano and Roma there are more low cost flights to Bari operated by Easy Jet. Generally promotional fares for national flights to Bari begin at around 50 Euros return but it is recommended to book them well ahead your departure date. Average cost for a return flight to Bari is around Euros 150
